

Inaugural meeting of the Translational Cancer Network, Health

PROGRAMME

19 September 2023, from 15-19

Auditorium G206-142, entrance G, Aarhus University Hospital

Palle Juul-Jensens Boulevard. 99, 8200 Aarhus N

Programme

- 15.00 Welcome by Anne-Mette Hvas, Dean at the Faculty of Health, Aarhus University
- 15.10 The Translational Cancer Network at Health, Martin Roelsgaard Jakobsen, Prof. Dept. of Biomedicine, and Signe Borgquist, Prof. Dept. of Clinical Medicine will present the purpose of the network
- 15.20 Keynote 1: Sarah-Maria Fendt, Professor, KU Leuven, Belgium “Metabolic rewiring driving metastasis formation”
- 15.50 Presentation of translational cancer research at AU Health
Ebbe Bødtkjer, Prof., Dept. of Biomedicine “Acid-base dynamics and sensing influence breast cancer aggressiveness”
Lasse Sommer Kristensen, Assoc. Prof., Dept. of Biomedicine “Spatial molecular imaging of the tumor microenvironment at the invasive front of colon adenocarcinomas”
Anja Viendahl Olsen, Prof., Dept. of Public Health (TBA)
Siri Beier Jensen, Assoc. Prof., Dept. of Dentistry and Oral Health “Oral complications induced by cancer therapies”
- 16.50 Coffee break and poster session
- 17.20 Keynote 2: Mads Melbye, Head of Research at the Danish Cancer Society (TBA)
- 17.50 Presentation of translational cancer research at AU Health
Karen-Lise Garm Spindler, Prof., Dept. of Clinical Medicine “Translating ctDNA analysis into clinical oncology”
Jørgen Bjerggaard Jensen, Prof., Dept. of Clinical Medicine “From bench to bedside in bladder cancer research - how do we make the path a two-way multilane highway?”
Iben Lyskjær, Assoc. Prof., Dept. of Clinical Medicine “A new horizon for RCC”
- 18.30 Reception and poster awards

Registration

Please sign up at our homepage (deadline 1 September)

<https://health.au.dk/en/the-translational-cancer-network/>

