

The AU Health Cardiovascular Network

WHO CAN HELP ME?

Facilities and infrastructure in cardiovascular research at AU/AUH

April 1st 2020 from 14-17

Department of Cardiology, conference room, entrance F, ground floor
Aarhus University Hospital, Palle Juul-Jensens Boulevard 99, 8200 Aarhus N

Learn more about CORE-functions, facilities and infrastructure related to cardiovascular research at Aarhus University and Aarhus University Hospital.

Programme

- 14.00 Welcome Hans Erik Bøtker, chairman of the network steering committee
- Core facilities at Department of Biomedicine Christian Aalkjær and Thomas G. Jensen, Department of Biomedicine
- Experimental animal facilities at Department of Clinical Medicine Jacob Fog Bentzon, Department of Clinical Medicine
- From bench to bedside Hans Erik Bøtker, Department of Cardiology and Department of Clinical Medicine
- 15.00 Coffee break
- 15.15 BIAS - Biostatistical Advisory Service Bo Martin Bibby, leader of BIAS
- Register-based cardiovascular research and the importance of selecting the correct comparisons Lars Pedersen, Department of Clinical Epidemiology
- Phenomewide association analysis in the UK Biobank Mette Nyegaard, Department of Biomedicine
- Exercise models to investigate responses to mechanical and metabolic stress Kristian Vissing, Department of Public Health
- 16.15 Networking and tour of the surgical research labs at Department of Clinical Medicine

Registration

Deadline for sign up is Wednesday March 25th at <https://events.au.dk/facilitiesandinfrastructure/who-can-help-me-facilities-and-infrastructure-in-cardiovascular-research-at-au-and-auh>