

First annual meeting in the Personalised Medicine Network

PROGRAMME

6th October 2020 at 9-11.45 – followed by lunch
Lakeside Lecture Theatre - the Merete Barker auditorium
Aarhus University, Bartholins Allé 3, 8000 Aarhus C

- 9.00 Welcome Anders Børghlum, representing professor for the Personalised Medicine network
- Interdisciplinary networks Lars Bo Nielsen, Dean, Health
- 9.15 Biobank research: from discovery to personalized medicine Mark Daly, Director, Institute for Molecular Medicine Finland, University of Helsinki, and honorary doctor at Aarhus University
- Pan-cancer whole genome studies of mutation and selection in cancer Jakob Skou Pedersen, Professor at MOMA – Department of Molecular Medicine at Aarhus University Hospital
- 10.15 Break
- 10.45 Precision Medicine in Oncology Ulrik Lassen, Professor of Clinical Oncology, Rigshospitalet and University of Copenhagen
- When an entire country is a cohort – what can "omics" add Deirdre Cronin Fenton, Associate Professor at the Department of Clinical Epidemiology, Aarhus University Hospital
- 11.45 Lunch

Sign up here <https://events.au.dk/personalisedmedicine>. Deadline is Friday September 25th